

Pork Party Appetisers Perfect For Summer

Are you planning a garden party? A birthday party or wedding? Make your party stands out this summer with chorizo, meatballs and bacon. Whether you're hosting your own gathering or making a dish to share, pork has you covered.

How about chorizo meatballs with manchego cheese to provide an elegant twist? The chorizo will add extra kick to your meatballs. You could season each meatball with basil and sprinkle some extra cheese over them for presentation.

Another meatball option could be a cheese-stuffed meatball which is a perfect blend of sausage, chilli sauce and white cheddar cheese.

Kebabs aren't just for the barbecue! Create your own with peppers, onions and pork on a skewer and put them straight in the oven. You could marinate them with sweet and sour sauce or a blue cheese sauce. Kebabs are a brilliant way to get creative and experiment with flavourings,

You can't go wrong with bacon and anything wrapped in it, is even better. If you're going for something different to add to the party you could make bacon wrapped figs with maple glaze with a goat cheese and thyme dip. If they sound too fancy you could prep some pigs in blankets – they always go down well at any party at any time of year.

How about a bacon and black pudding side salad? This is perfect addition to add something different and unexpected and perfect for pork lovers!

We would recommend a range of pork pies, sausage rolls, a selection of chutneys, salads and alcoholic and non-alcoholic beverages to compliment your party food.
